

Project/Design Engineer Oil Pumps (f/m)

UNITED-CONSULTING is an Austrian management consultancy, specialized on the local, national and international personnel selection and recruitment of experts, independent professionals and executives.

Job Status: Full time

Start: immediately

Salary: € 2.500,-- gross per month, depends on experience level and skills

Location: in the west of Lower Austria

Responsibilities

- Development lead of global projects from concept to serial-production
- Project management: work out R&D quotes and timing plans, control costs, lead of engineering project teams
- Support acquisition process: technical customer presentation, preparation of material for internal price calculation
- Design: work out concepts, 3D-models, drawings
- Lead function: Advice other designers within project team, coordinate and evaluate internal analysis and testing activities, technical management of sub-suppliers
- Technical support of MPT production plant

Requirements

- Technical education in Automotive or Mechanical Engineering
- comparable to technical university (Dipl.-Ing.), technical college (Dipl.-Ing.(FH) or technical high school (Ing.)
- Expertise in the field of combustion engines and engine components
- Experience in mass balancer and/or engine components design and testing
- CAD-knowledge (CATIA or ProE or I-DEAS or Unigraphics)
- Language: German, Technical English as well as English for fluent conversation
- Skills in Computer Applications (MS-Office)
- Ability of team work
- Communicative Competence
- Tolerance to stress
- Willingness for business trips